

Marineland Restaurant Notes Fifth Anniversary

Lieutenant Theodore Ellyson, USN, was ordered to instruction at the Glenn Curtiss Aviation Camp, San Diego, Calif., on Dec. 23, 1910, to become the Navy's first aviator.

The South Bay's nationally famous dining establishment, Marineland Restaurant, is this week formally celebrating its fifth anniversary. It was opened in January 1955, four months after the unveiling of the oceanarium, Marineland of the Pacific. Coincident with the beginning of its sixth year on the Palos Verdes Peninsula is the announcement of six top-name musical groups to appear during 1960. The policy of presenting prestige bands in the "Porpoise Room" will be continued, disclosed George M. Foster, owner of Marineland Restaurant.

BILL PANSELL and his band open Jan. 29, following wind-up of the current engagement of The Celebrities. Scheduled for appearances in the

"Porpoise Room" are also the Hoosier Hot Shots, The Wilder Brothers, Rosy McHargue's Dixieland Band, Norman Brown Sextet and Red Nichols and his "Five Pennies."

The entertainment program for 1960 is the most imposing in Marineland Restaurant's history, which has grown from modest piano music and instrumental trios to the current succession of large all-star orchestral groups.

THE LUNCHEON and dinner menus, featuring seafoods of the world, steaks, chops and chicken specialties, were expanded last year to offer an enormous selection to satisfy diversified preferences. John Bichler is the master chef de cuisine, while bar-manager is LeRoy Charon.

Guy D. Stacy, apprentice petty officer second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland E. Stacy of 1050 W. 204th St., and Bruce N. Starbuck, apprentice petty officer second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Starbuck of 20733 Tomlee, are scheduled to graduate Jan. 22 from Recruit Training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

Schools Report High Federal Impact Figures

Nearly 10 per cent of the students attending Torrance schools have parents employed in federally-connected industries, according to a study made in connection with the schools' application for federal funds.

The fact that some 2430 parents were employed in defense-connected industries may mean as much as $250,000 for the local school budget. A second survey of employment must be made by the district in the spring.

This year's figures were a little lower than previously, but this may have been due to the steel strike. The federal government allots money to districts which have a large number of parents in government-connected, non-taxable industries or employment.

Remember Your Friends, Kuchel Says to Labor

U. S. Senator Thomas H. Kuchel of California has advised leaders of organized labor to remember George Washington's warning against "entangling alliances" in mapping political strategy for America's working people.

In an informal talk to West Coast delegates attending an AFL-CIO legislative conference, the Senate Republican whip also counseled labor leaders to "do a better job of informing the American public of your objectives."

KUCHEL'S comments on the way organized labor can help reach its goals came after he reviewed the history of certain recent controversies about legislation particularly affecting labor. He said unions should revive the practice of Samuel Gompers, first Federation of Labor president, to recognize labor's friends regardless of party and to follow the principle of "reward your friends, punish your enemies."

Saying organized labor should refuse to become permanently identified with any particular party, Kuchel warned that all Americans "must ever be certain that the two-party system continues in our country and that never will we see one overpowering political organization — or a multiplicity of political organizations such as has been a weakness of France."

THE UNITED States also must safeguard its ability to make "honorable compromises", Kuchel said, remarking "this is necessary for progress."

He listed as objectives for organized labor and all other Americans "keep America free, keep America strong, strike for peace with justice, and welcome any honorable area of agreement which could be a step toward disarmament."
